

New Brunswick Indicators Dashboard

The New Brunswick Indicators Dashboard is an interactive website in which social, economic and demographic indicators can be displayed spatially using different levels of sub-provincial geography and different time periods. Users can create and compare maps as well as tables using data that has been analyzed by NB-IRDT students and staff. I was a liaison between the designer, staff and graduate students associated with the NB-IRDT.