

THE RELIGION AND DIVERSITY PROJECT/RELIGION ET DIVERSITÉ

Keelin Pringnitz

PhD Candidate in Religious Studies. Canadian Diversity University of Ottawa

Bio and Research Statement

Keelin Pringnitz is a first year PhD candidate at the University of Ottawa, Canada, working with Dr. Lori Beaman. She completed her Bachelor of Arts (Hons.) at Wilfrid Laurier University in Religion and Culture with a minor in Psychology in 2014. Her Masters of Arts in Religion and Culture was also completed at Wilfrid Laurier University in 2015. Her research focus is the cross-section of religious impact on recreational facilities, namely accessibility challenges to athletic programming associated to an increase in religious diversity in Canada.