INTRODUCTION

This is far from being an exhaustive list of publications relating to prison chaplaincy and the provision of spiritual and religious care to inmates. Instead, it is selective in various ways. The principal criteria for selection include, but are not limited to:

- Date of publication after the year 1990 (except for earlier ‘classics’)
- Relevance to issues of religious and social diversity, equality and justice
- Focus mainly on the UK, Canada, France and the US
- Publication in English or French

Only a small number of the rapidly increasing number of publications on prisons and the so-called radicalization of Muslim inmates are included. The list also omits most theological reflections on prison chaplaincy and the professional literature aimed at chaplains. And only a small sample of the voluminous literature on American law and religion is included.
