

There but Not There - Questions

1. The photo essay depicts a woman looking to her faith community for help. What do you think she is hoping to receive?
2. What are some of the ways that faith communities HELP or HINDER the healing journey of those who come to them for assistance in the aftermath of abuse?
3. What are some of the particular challenges facing faith communities as they respond to the needs of families impacted by domestic violence?
4. Identify some strategies that faith community might employ in order to make it more comfortable for women and men to seek support and assistance.